

February 23
at 6pm
at Alliance Française
free admission

Kiratiana Freelon presents

BLACK PARIS

Ever since Josephine Baker performed the danse sauvage at the Folies Bergère in the 1920s, blacks have had a strong influence on Paris. In recent years natives from Africa and the Caribbean have made Paris home. Kiratiana Freelon is the author of Kiratiana's Travel Guide to Black Paris. More information at bonjour@afmsp.org or 612-332-0436

113 North First Street, Minneapolis - www.afmsp.org

