

Did You Know That the Alliance Française Offers Corporate Membership?

The Alliance Française, a non-profit French cultural center serving the Twin Cities, offers corporate membership to 15 members of your staff for the period of one year. Enrich your employee's experience and benefit from advertising, all while supporting the Alliance Française and its mission to promote the French language and Francophone cultures in our community.

Advertising Benefits:

In addition to the benefits listed above, Corporate Members receive ten weeks of complimentary advertising in the AFMSP weekly e-newsletter, distributed to over 8,500 contacts in the Twin Cities Metro area. A full-color jpeg or gif file, 500 x 200 pixels, should be sent via email to our Membership Coordinator. The value of this advertising package is $250.

As Members, You Will Receive:

- Free access to Culturethèque, a digital library featuring thousands of e-books, French magazines, learning resources and more
- Free access eligible to borrow books, films and magazines from our on-site media center
- Enjoy free or discounted admission to Alliance Française events
- Receive member discounts at partners throughout the Twin Cities and beyond from businesses such as Henry & Son, Camille Albane Salon, France-Amérique, and many more
- Access to first-class language instruction with our instructors. Join group classes, or specially request business courses tailored to your needs. Our native-speaking instructors have professional training and use an immersion-style communicative approach which allows for results from day one. Classes are tailored to suit your business and staff's needs and goals. Your special requests are welcome!

